AN ACT to amend Chapter 140 of the Local Laws of 1859, entitled
 "An act to incorporate the Village of Monroe."

(See Supplement to Local Laws.)

CHAPTER 58.

[Published March 8, 1861.]

AN ACT declaring the 22d day of February and the 4th day of July, Holidays.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The twenty-second day of February and ^{Holidays.} the fourth day of July, are hereby declared to be holidays.

SECTION 2. No court shall be open or transact any ^{In what cases courts to trans-} business on the twenty-second day of February or on ^{act business.} the fourth day of July, unless it be for the purpose of instructing or discharging a jury, or of receiving a verdict; but this section shall not prevent the exercise of the jurisdiction of any magistrate when it shall be necessary in criminal cases to preserve the peace or to arrest offenders.

SECTION 3. Whenever any bill of exchange or negotiable promissory note shall be payable in this state, and the third day of grace on such bill or note shall fall upon the twenty-second day of February or upon the fourth day of July, such promissory note or bill of exchange shall be due and payable on the secular day next preceding. ^{Third day of grace.}

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 7, 1861.
