

CHAPTER 125.

[Published March 26, 1862.]

AN ACT to legalize the official acts of J. H. Deuster, as justice of the peace in the county of Milwaukee.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. That all the official acts and duties performed by J. H. Deuster, as justice of the peace in the town of Lake, in the county of Milwaukee, in this state, prior to the passage of this act, so far as the same are consistent with the general laws of this state, are hereby legalized and declared to be as valid, for all purposes, as though the said J. H. Deuster had caused his official bond and oath, or oaths, to be made and filed in conformity with the statutes. Legalized.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 21, 1862.

CHAPTER 126.

[Published March 27, 1862.]

AN ACT to provide for the loan of the drainage fund in the county of Jackson, in this state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. That portion of the drainage fund income now due, or which may hereafter become due, to the county of Jackson, in this state, shall be paid over to the county treasurer of said county, at the same time with the money due to said county of Jackson from the school fund income for each year. Money to be paid to county treasurer.

SECTION 2. The county board of supervisors of the said county of Jackson, is hereby authorized and empowered to loan to the said county of Jackson, for the term of five years, all such drainage fund income, now in the hands of the county treasurer of the said county May be loaned to the county.

of Jackson, or which may come into the hands of said treasurer under the provisions of this act, for the period of two years from and after the passage of this act; and such fund shall, when so loaned as aforesaid, be paid out by said county treasurer, for the purposes and upon the order of the commissioners hereinafter named.

To be expended in building jail.

SECTION 3. The funds mentioned in the preceding sections of this act, when loaned to the county of Jackson as aforesaid, shall be used and expended in the construction and erection of a jail at the county seat of the said county of Jackson.

Commissioners —their duties.

SECTION 4. Russel C. Bryan, Jacob A. Johnson and Ira B. Allen, are hereby appointed commissioners for said county, and shall have the superintendence of the work done in the construction and erection of said jail, and the expenditure of the moneys by this act applied to the building of said jail. The commissioners may draw orders on the county treasurer of Jackson county, payable from the drainage fund. They may employ such laborers or let such contracts as they may deem necessary. They shall keep a record of their doings and vouchers for all moneys, and shall make a full report of their doings and expenditures to the board of supervisors at the November session, in 1863.

Their salary.

SECTION 5. Each commissioner named in section three of this act, shall receive for his services the sum of one dollar per day for all time necessarily employed in the discharge of his duties required by this act, to be paid out of the said drainage fund: provided, that no greater sum than twenty-five dollars shall be paid to said commissioners for their services.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 21, 1862.