

CHAPTER 38.

[Published February 25, 1862.]

AN ACT to extend the time for the payment of taxes in the county of Wood.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The time for the voluntary payment of all taxes, except state taxes, on property in the county of Wood, for the year 1861, levied pursuant to any law of this state, is hereby extended to the third Monday in May next, and it shall not be lawful for any town treasurer, in said county, to levy the same by distress and sale prior to said day. Extended to May 19.

SECTION 2. The town treasurers shall retain in their hands for collection all delinquent taxes, and may receive such of the taxes therein as shall be paid voluntarily, prior to the third Monday in May next, and receipt the same to the person or corporation making such payment thereof, without other or further authority than the original warrant [warrants] issued to him [them] for the collection of the same. Original warrants sufficient authority to treasurers.

SECTION 3. If, upon the third Monday in May next, there shall be remaining in the hands of any town treasurer any delinquent and unpaid taxes, it shall be the duty of such officer to present his original warrant to the officer who issued the same, for renewal thereof, and it is hereby made the duty of said officer to renew the same for thirty days from said third Monday in May, by endorsement under his hand; and the said treasurer shall thereupon proceed to enforce collection of the same by distress and sale, in the manner now prescribed by existing laws, and shall make return of such warrant and tax list to the county treasurer on the fourth Monday of June next, in the manner now provided by existing laws. Warrants may be extended.

SECTION 4. The term of office of the treasurers of the towns of Wood county, for the purposes of this act, is hereby extended to the fourth Monday in June next; but said treasurers shall give a new official bond before the first Tuesday in March next, in double the amount of delinquent taxes remaining in their hands. Return of warrants.

Term of office of treasurers extended.

Monthly payments.

SECTION 5. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize any collector to retain in his hands any taxes already collected by him; and every collector is hereby required to pay over to the proper officer or person, such taxes as he may have collected, on the first Monday of every month, until the time shall have elapsed to make his return as hereinbefore provided.

SECTION 6. This act is hereby declared to be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 19, 1862.

CHAPTER 39.

[Published February 24, 1862.]

AN ACT to legalize the official acts of H. H. Tredwell, a justice of the peace of Crystal Lake, Marquette county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Official acts legalized.

SECTION 1. That all the official acts and duties performed by H. H. Tredwell, as justice of the peace in the town of Crystal Lake, in the county of Marquette, in this state, prior to the passage of this act, so far as the same are consistent with the general laws of this state, are hereby legalized and declared to be as valid, for all purposes, as though the said H. H. Tredwell had caused his official bond and oath to be made and filed in conformity with the statutes of this state.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 19, 1862.
