CHAPTER 216.

[Published April 17, 1863.]

AN ACT to facilitate the entry [entry] of judgments in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Entry of judgment without action.

SECTION 1. In all cases of the rendition of a judgment without action, on a bond or note and warrant of attorney, in any court in this state, under the provisions of chapter one hundred and forty of the revised statutes, after a year and a day from the date of the warrant, it shall not be necessary, before the entry [entry] of any such judgment, to make any other affidavit than [that] required by section fourteen of said chapter; and the signing of the judge or court commissioner of the judgment, according to section fifteen of said chapter, shall be sufficient leave for the entry [entry] of any such judgment.

Approved April 2, 1863.
