CHAPTER 241.

[Published April 22, 1863.]

AN ACT to provide for the removal of the county seat of Ashland county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. At the annual election to be held in the month of November next, the qualified electors of the county of Ashland may vote upon the question of the removal of the county seat of said county, from the town of Ashland, the present county seat, to the town of La Point, in said county of Ashland.

Vote on proposition.

SECTION 2. All the votes given upon the question aforesaid, shall be by ballot, upon which shall be written or printed either the words, "for the removal of the county seat," or "against the removal of the county seat." Said ballots shall be deposited in a separate box, furnished by the inspectors of elections, and in case a majority of all the votes cast on the question, shall be in favor of removal to the place above designated, then shall the town of La Point, the said place, be the county seat of said county.

Form of ballots.

SECTION 3. The said votes shall be counted, canvassed, certified and returned in the same manner as is provided by law for counting, canvassing, returning and certifying the votes for county officers; and the clerk of the board of supervisors of said county shall record the result of the same in some record book provided for that purpose, in his office, and transmit, without delay,

How canvassed, &c.
