

CHAPTER 59.

[Published March 17, 1863.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 11 of the general laws of the extra session of 1862, entitled "an act to enable the militia and volunteers of this state, when in the military service of the United States or of this state, to exercise the right of suffrage."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter eleven of the general laws of the extra session of 1862, entitled "an act to enable the militia and volunteers of this state, when in the military service of the United States or of this state, to exercise the right of suffrage," is hereby amended, by inserting after the word "notwithstanding," and before the word "provided," where it first occurs [where they first occur] in said section, the following: "And all such qualified electors, either within this state or without the same, on the first Tuesday of April, shall be entitled to exercise the right of suffrage at any election of judges of the county or circuit courts, and for justices of the supreme court, held pursuant to law, on that day, in the county of which such electors shall be residents, in such places and in such manner as is prescribed in this act and the act to which this [is] amendatory, for the exercise of the right of such electors at any general election." Soldiers may vote for judges.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the state board of canvassers to meet on or before the 15th day of May next after any election of judges of the county or circuit courts and of justices of the supreme court shall have been held, to canvass the votes for such judges and justices, returned under the provisions of this act and the act to which this is amendatory, and shall perform the duties of such canvass in accordance with the provisions of the act to which this [is] amendatory, and the law relating to general elections, so far as the same are applicable. Duty of state canvassers.

SECTION 3. Immediately after the completion of said canvass, the secretary of state shall transmit to the clerks [clerk] of the board of supervisors of each county in which an election of county judge has been held, a certified copy of the statement show- Duty of secretary of state.

Duty of clerk of the board, &c.

ing the votes east for county judge in his county ; and after receiving such statement, the said clerk shall proceed to constitute a board of county canvassers, and said board of canvassers shall proceed to determine the person elected county judge, in the same manner as is provided in section thirteen of the act of which this [is] amendatory.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect immediately after its passage and publication.

Approved March 16, 1863.

CHAPTER 60.

[Published March 20, 1863.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 248 of the private and local laws of 1853, entitled "an act to incorporate the Fond du Lac and Mississippi railroad company."

(See supplement to local laws.)

CHAPTER 61.

[Published March 20, 1863.]

AN ACT for the relief of the Sheboygan county agricultural society.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

When order may be issued in favor of.

SECTION 1. The secretary of state is hereby authorized and directed to issue an order upon the state treasurer, in favor of the Sheboygan county agricultural society, pursuant to section five of chapter fifty-three of the general laws of 1858, in the same manner as though the annual report of said society had been received and filed previously to the first day of February, 1863.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 18, 1863.