

CHAPTER 376.

[Published May 25, 1865.]

AN ACT to legalize the official acts of Samuel B. Cooper, as justice of the peace of the county of Rock, and to authorize him to file his official bond and oath of office.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Acts legalized.

SECTION 1. All the official acts and duties of Samuel B. Cooper, as justice of the peace in the county of Rock, in this state, prior to the passage of this act, so far as the same are consistent with the laws of this state, are hereby legalized and declared to be as valid to all intents and purposes, as they would have been had the said Samuel B. Cooper filed his official bond and oath of office within the time and in the manner provided by the laws of this state.

When bond and oath may be filed

SECTION 2. It shall be lawful for the said Samuel B. Cooper to file his official bond and oath of office, as justice of the peace of the said county of Rock, pursuant to his election to said office at the, at the annual meeting held in the city of Beloit, in said county of Rock, for the election of city officers and justices of the peace, on the 5th day of April, 1864, at any time within twenty days after the passage of this act; and when said official bond and oath of office shall be so filed, in pursuance of the revised statutes and of this act, the said Samuel B. Cooper shall be fully qualified to act as justice of the peace of the said county of Rock, for the remainder of the term for which he was elected.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 8, 1865.