CHAPTER 390.

[Published May 27, 1865.]

AN ACT to vacate certain lots in Belknap's addition to the village of Whitewater.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Vacated.

SECTION 1. All that portion of the plat of Belknap's addition to the village of Whitewater, which embraces lots numbers ten, eleven, twelve and thirteen, and the alleys and streets adjacent thereto, is hereby vacated, and the lands upon which the same were laid out and platted, shall be assessed and taxed in like manner as if the same had never been laid out and platted: provided, however, that such vacation shall not in any wise affect or impair any assessment thereof heretofore made, nor any tax heretofore levied thereon, or levied on any lot, tract or parcel thereof.
