

CHAPTER 98.

[Published March 16, 1869.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 481 of the general laws of 1852, entitled "an act to incorporate the Wisconsin institute for the education of the deaf and dumb."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Amended.

Pupils from other states may be admitted on payment of certain expenses.

SECTION 1. Section ten (10) of chapter 481 of the general laws of 1852, is hereby amended to read as follows: "Deaf and dumb pupils may be received into the institution erected and carried on under the provisions of this act, from any state, county, city, town or other public corporation: provided, that pupils from without the state shall never be received to the exclusion of pupils from within the state; and provided, further, that no pupil shall be received from without the state until the person or corporation desiring the admission of such pupil shall pay in advance to the treasurer of the board of trustees of such institute such sum quarterly, as the board of trustees may direct, which sum shall be fixed by such board of trustees at an amount sufficient to pay the expenses of the board, washing, lodging, fuel and books for such pupil; and all pupils so received from without the state, shall upon the payment of such sum, be entitled, for the time which such payment is made, to enjoy and receive all the benefits and privileges of said school, and shall receive the same teaching, books, boarding, lodging, washing and fuel and have the same use of the library as though he or she were a pupil received under the authority of this state, or any town, city, county or other public corporation within the same."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 5, 1869.
