

CHAPTER 52.

[Published March 15, 1870.]

AN ACT to amend section 1 of chapter 132 of the general laws of 1868, entitled "an act to provide for the re-assessment and collection of taxes."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

Taxes declared void may be re-assessed.

SECTION 1. Section one (1) of chapter 132 of the general laws of 1868, "entitled an act to provide for the re assessment and collection of taxes" is hereby so amended as to read as follows: Section 1. All taxes and assessments, either special or general, which have been heretofore or may hereafter be levied in any town or city in this state, upon any lands or real estate in such town or city, and which may have been or shall be set aside and declared illegal or void by the judgment of any court of this state, or by the action of any county board of supervisors of this state, or by the clerk of the board of supervisors of any county, in consequence of any irregularity in any of the proceedings in levying said tax or assessment, or of an erroneous or imperfect description of said lands and real estate, or in consequence of any omission to comply with the forms of law under which said tax or assessment may be or has been made, or for any other cause, may be re-assessed and re-levied upon said lands or real estate in any such town or city, at any time within two years after the judgment of the court is pronounced, or the action of the county board of supervisors or any clerk thereof, setting aside said tax or assessment, and it shall be the duty of any town board of any town, or city council of any city, and they are hereby respectively authorized to insert in the tax roll of such town or city, the amount of such tax or assessment, and the same shall be collected the same as other taxes and assessments are collected which have been assessed upon such lands or real estate for the year in which said assessment is inserted in the tax roll.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 12, 1870.

CHAPTER 53.

[Published March 15, 1870.]

AN ACT to amend section 8, chapter 75 of the general laws of 1867, entitled "an act relating to the salaries of certain county officers."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three (3) of chapter seventy-five (75) of the general laws of 1867, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: In case the county board of supervisors of any county fail to establish the salary of any such county officer, as provided for in section one (1) of this act, then and in that case each and every such officer shall receive the same annual salary as that received by his immediate predecessor in office: provided, however, the county of Walworth shall be and is hereby declared to be exempt from the provisions of this act, so far as relates to fixing and determining the salary of the county superintendent of schools of said county.

Amended.
If salary not fixed by county board, how to be fixed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Presented to the governor March 10, 1870; deposited with the secretary of state, March 14, 1870.

The foregoing act having been presented to the governor of the state of Wisconsin for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the house of the legislature in which it originated within the time prescribed by the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, has become a law without his approval.
