

audited and paid in like manner as is provided by law for the payment of the sheriff for attending upon the court: provided, but one such reporter shall be employed at the same time.

Additional fees for copies.

SECTION 3. In addition to the above compensation, such phonographic reporters may charge and collect, as fees, ten cents per folio (of one hundred words) for making and furnishing transcripts of their short-hand notes of the testimony and other proceedings of the court in the trial of any action, to be paid for by the party requiring such transcript to be made. In the trial of criminal cases, the court may, in its discretion, order such transcripts to be made, certified, audited and paid for in the same manner as the reporter's per diem compensation. In such cases the reporter's notes shall be written out in full, and filed with the clerk of the court.

May be removed by judge.

SECTION 4. The judge of said court may, in his discretion, remove such reporters, or either of them, and may fill any vacancy caused by such removal, or happening from any other cause.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 17, 1871.

AN ACT to provide for holding normal institutes in the state of Wisconsin, and to appropriate a certain sum of money for the purposes therein named.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Normal institutes to be held.

SECTION 1. Normal institutes for the instruction of teachers shall be held each year in such counties of the state as may be designated by the state superintendent, with the advice of the board of regents of normal schools, preference being given to such counties as receive least direct benefits from the normal schools.

SECTION 2. Each of said institutes shall be held for at least four consecutive weeks, under the direction of the county superintendent, assisted by such person or persons as the state superintendent may appoint. How long to be held.

SECTION 3. The course of study pursued in said institutes shall, as far as practicable, be uniform, and shall be prescribed by the school superintendents of the counties in which said institutes are held, with the advice and approval of the state superintendent. Course of study.

SECTION 4. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the same to be expended under the direction of the state superintendent and the board of regents of normal schools. Appropriated.

SECTION 5. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 17, 1871.

CHAPTER 19.

[Published February 20, 1871.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 117 of the laws of 1869, entitled "an act to provide for a system of county highways in Brown county, and for the adoption of such system by other counties."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The corporate authorities of any city, village or borough, and the board of supervisors of the several towns in any county adopting said system, shall have power to designate by resolution, upon what county highways in said county and upon what parts of any such highways, shall be expended all moneys raised in such cities, villages, boroughs or towns, respectively, in pursuance of the provisions of the act of which this is amendatory; and the overseer of May designate highways to be improved.
