

CHAPTER 128.

[Published April 5, 1872.]

AN ACT to amend sections 54 and 144 of chapter 152 of the general laws of 1869, entitled an act to codify the laws of this state in relation to highways and bridges.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54 of chapter 152 of the general laws of 1869 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "Section 54. No public highway shall be laid out through any orchard or garden, nor through any building or fixture used for the purpose of trade or manufacture, without the consent of the owner thereof, when the damage caused thereby to such orchard, garden, building or fixture, exclusive of the damage to the land upon which the same are situated shall exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars; nor shall any highway be laid out through any building, fixture, yard or enclosure used for educational or charitable purposes without the consent of the owner thereof." Amended.
Highways through orchards, etc. restrained.

SECTION 2. Section 144 of said chapter 152 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "Section 144. Every person who shall, upon notice being given by the overseer, appear with such tools as he shall direct, and work agreeably to the direction of said overseer, shall be credited on the highway tax roll, which may be still in the hands of said overseer, the amount of such labor or any part thereof: provided, such person performing such labor shall not have paid the full amount of tax assessed to him on said highway tax roll; but in no case shall he receive a greater credit than he may be delinquent on said tax roll, or may be entitled on account of such labor. In case any amount shall remain unpaid on the said highway tax roll at the time the said overseer is required by law to make his final report, it shall be the duty of the overseer to return the said unpaid amounts to the supervisors in said report. And it shall be the duty of the supervisors to add such unpaid amounts to the amounts assessed on the highway tax roll for the succeeding year against such persons whose tax remains Amended.
Shall be credited on tax roll for labor.
Shall make return of unpaid tax.
Shall add to succeeding tax roll.

May levy and assess tax.

unpaid. And the overseer receiving such highway tax roll shall collect and expend the same as required by law. The overseer shall have power to levy and assess a tax not to exceed one-fourth of the amount assessed on the taxable property on the highway tax roll of the previous year, said tax to be applied to rendering the highways passable according to the provisions of section one hundred and forty-three of said chapter 152, said tax to be collected in the same way and manner as any other highway tax."

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1872.
