CHAPTER 131.

[Published April 3, 1872.]

AN ACT to amend sections thirty-five and thirty-six of chapter seventy of the revised statutes, entitled "the incorporation of villages."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirty-five of chapter seventy <sup>Amended.</sup> of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "Whenever two-thirds of all the owners <sup>May make application for</sup> of real estate bounding both sides of any street, or street improvement. both sides of any part of a street not less than sixteen rods in length, in any village, shall desire to have such street graded, paved or otherwise improved, they may make and sign an application in writing to the board of trustees of said village, specifying in such application, as near as may be, the sum necessary to be raised for that purpose; and it shall be lawful for the trustees to levy and cause to be collected such sum by tax as may be necessary to construct such improvement, on all of the owners of real estate or lots on such street or part of street. Such part of said tax shall be assessed against each of the owners of real estate or lots on said street or part of street as shall be sufficient to so grade, pave or otherwise improve said street along the respective lots or land of said owners, from the boundary line between said land or lots and said street, to the center of said street."

May levy tax.

How tax assessed.

Amended.

May make application for sidewalks.

Tax to be levied

How assessed.

SECTION 2. Section thirty-six of said chapter seventy of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "Whenever two-thirds of all the owners of real estate or lots bounding one side of any such street or part of street shall desire to have a sidewalk built or repaired, the application for that purpose shall be made to the trustees by such owners, and the tax for the building or repairing such sidewalk shall be levied against the owners of the real estate or lots bounding the same. Such part of the tax necessary to construct or repair said sidewalk shall be assessed against each of the owners of real estate or lots along the line of said sidewalk and bounding the same, as shall be sufficient to construct or repair said sidewalk along and contiguous to the respective lots of said owners."

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1872.
