

CHAPTER 150.

[Published April 3, 1872.]

AN ACT to provide for the collection of statistics from towns, villages and cities, showing the amount of taxes raised therein.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Shall make out statement of taxes.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the clerk of every town, village or city in this state, in each year, at the time he is required by law to deliver the tax roll of his town, village or city to the town, village or city treasurer, to make out and transmit to the county clerk of his county, a statement, showing separately the amount of taxes levied upon his town, village or city, including all highway and street taxes for each year, and for what purpose the same were levied, together with the assessed value of all property, real and personal, within his town, city or village.

Shall enter amount in a book, and transmit abstract.

SECTION 2. The county clerk of each county in this state shall enter the amount of each item of tax levied in each town, village or city in his county, in a suitable book, under proper headings, according to the statements mentioned in the preceding section; and he shall transmit an abstract of said statements to the secretary of state on or before the third Monday of January next ensuing.

Shall record abstracts.

SECTION 3. The secretary of state shall cause so much of such abstracts as will show the aggregate amount of each kind of tax levied in each county to be recorded in a book to be provided for that purpose, and shall make a condensed statement thereof by counties, and include the same in his annual report.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1872.
