

the faith of said city is hereby pledged for the payment of said bonds, principal and interest, and the proceeds of the issue of said bonds shall be deposited with the treasurer of said city, to be drawn and disbursed by the board of education for the purposes, and in the manner indicated by the second section of this act.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 9, 1874.

CHAPTER 19.

[Published February 12, 1874.]

AN ACT relating to practice in civil actions.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. If in any cause tried or to be tried before a referee, the prevailing party fail to move to confirm said referee's report therein within one year after the same is filed, the action shall, on motion of the defendant, be dismissed: provided, however, that two terms of said court shall in all cases be held between the filing of such report and the dismissal of such action, one of which shall be six months subsequent to the passage of this act.

Concerning trials by referees, and confirming reports thereof.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 10, 1874.

CHAPTER 20.

[Published February 11, 1874.]

AN ACT to legalize the acts of Edwin Shumway, a justice of the peace in the town of Springdale, Dane county, Wisconsin, relating to destruction of wolf scalps.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The acts performed by Edwin Shumway, a justice of the peace in the town of Springdale, Edwin Shumway, wolf scalp certificates legalized.