

CHAPTER 13.

[Published February 15, 1874.]

AN ACT relating to the Whitewater Furniture and Manufacturing Company and amendatory of sections 1 and 5, of chapter 282, of the private and local laws of 1869.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 282, of the private and local laws of 1869, is hereby amended by striking out of the sixth line thereof the words "furniture and," so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows: Section one. E. S. Reddington, Wm. Nelson, G. W. Esterly, F. L. Kiser and C. C. Lewis and such other persons as may be hereafter associated with them as stockholders, their successors and assigns, are hereby created and constituted a body corporate and politic by the name of the "Whitewater Manufacturing Company," with perpetual succession, and by that name shall have all the privileges and immunities incident to a corporation, and no stockholder shall be liable for the debts of the corporation for a greater sum than the amount of his stock. The corporation hereby created in its corporate name, shall have the right, and be capable in law of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, defending and being defended, in all courts and places; of purchasing, owning, holding, using, selling, leasing, mortgaging and conveying, estate and property of any kind, real, personal or mixed; of taking, holding, using, assigning and collecting any notes, securities, mortgages or obligations, and of having a common or corporate seal, and changing the same at pleasure.

Amending ch.
282 P. & L. L. of 1869, relating to
Whitewater
Manufacturing
Co.

SECTION 2. Section five, of said chapter 282, is hereby amended by striking out of the first line thereof the words, "furniture and," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section five. The Whitewater Manufacturing Company is hereby authorized and fully empowered to do and carry on a general manufacturing business of any and every description within the town of Whitewater, in this state, and to borrow any sum or sums of money from any person or persons, corporation or corporations, and make and execute in its corporate name all necessary writings, notes, bonds, or other papers and mortgages, or to convey in trust its works, property, real and personal, and franchises, and make, execute and deliver such securities in amount and kind as may be deemed expedient by said corporation. And said company may make and sell such notes and bonds, mortgages or other securities at par, or at any price under par, as to said company may seem best, any law on the subject of usury to the contrary notwithstanding; and said company is hereby prohibited from interposing the defense of usury in any action brought to enforce the payment of any of the securities issued under and by virtue of this act.

Powers of corporation.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 12, 1875.

CHAPTER 14.

[Published February 16, 1875.]

AN ACT in relation to the collection of taxes in Marathon and Lincoln counties.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows.

Town treasurers of towns of Berlin, Wein, Maine and Texas to collect taxes.

SECTION 1. The town treasurers in the towns of Berlin, Wein, Maine and Texas, in the county of Marathon, are hereby authorized and empowered to collect all the taxes upon their several tax rolls now in their hands, notwithstanding portions of the lands and property upon which said taxes are levied and assessed are situated in the county of Lincoln, and portions in the county of Marathon.

To make duplicate returns.

SECTION 2. Each of said town treasurers shall make out duplicate returns and deliver one to the treasurer of Marathon county, as now provided by law, and one to the treasurer of Lincoln county, and shall pay over to the treasurer of Lincoln county all state and county taxes collected in that portion of their several towns in Lincoln county, and shall pay over to the treasurer of Marathon county all taxes collected in Marathon county in their several towns, as now provided by law, retaining all town or local taxes collected upon their several rolls.
