

CHAPTER 184.

[Published March 12, 1875.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 152, of the general laws of 1869, entitled "an act to codify the laws of this state relating to highways and bridges."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Persons aggrieved may appeal from determination of commissioners.

SECTION 1. Any person who shall consider himself aggrieved by any determination of the commissioners appointed by a justice of the peace of any adjoining town, or the supervisors of any town, either in laying out, altering or discontinuing, or in refusing to lay out, alter or discontinue any highway in this state, may, within thirty days after such determination, appeal therefrom, and appeal to the county judge of the same county for the appointment of commissioners, to whom an appeal from such determination of the commissioners appointed by a justice of the peace of any adjoining town, may be taken.

Application for appeal to be made in writing and state grounds.

SECTION 2. Every application for an appeal from the determination of the commissioners appointed by a justice of the peace in any adjoining town, shall be made in writing to such county judge, and shall briefly state the grounds upon which it is made, and whether it is brought to reverse entirely the determination of the commissioners appointed by such justice of the peace, or only to reverse a part thereof, and in the latter case it shall state what part.

Upon filing application county judge to proceed as directed by chap. 152, laws of 1869.

SECTION 3. Upon the filing of such application, and a bond executed to the supervisors of the town, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge, conditioned to pay all costs arising from such appeal, provided the determination of the commissioners in laying out, altering or discontinuing, or refusing to lay out, alter or discontinue such highway (as the case may be), shall not be reversed, such county judge shall then proceed in the same manner as is now prescribed by sections seventy-nine (79), eighty (80) and eighty-one (81), of chapter one hundred and fifty-two (152), of the general laws of 1869, in case of an appeal to a justice of the peace of an adjoining town, as far as said sections are applicable to this act.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1875.

CHAPTER 185.

AN ACT to amend chapter 68, of the private and local laws of 1868, entitled, "An act to incorporate the 'Germania' of the city of Milwaukee."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three, of chapter sixty-eight, of the private and local laws of 1868, is hereby amended by striking out the word "semi-annually" where the same occurs in the seventh line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "annually."

Amended.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1875.
