

CHAPTER 196.

[Published March 11, 1875.]

AN ACT to authorize county boards of supervisors to make all needful orders, rules, regulations and enactments for the preservation of fish.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

County board to make regulation for preservation of fish.

SECTION 1. The county boards of supervisors of the several counties of this state, are hereby authorized and empowered at any regular or special meeting thereof, to make, establish and enact, all needful orders, rules, regulations and enactments, for the preservation of fish in their respective counties, and when so made, established and enacted, said orders, rules, regulations and enactments, shall have the same force and effect as laws of this state duly passed and published.

Regulations to specify time in which and means by which it shall be unlawful to take fish.

SECTION 2. Said orders, rules, regulations and enactments shall specify the month or months of the year in which it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, to kill, destroy, catch or take in any way or manner, any kind of fish, or any fish of a certain kind, in or from any, or certain specified waters of said counties; and shall prohibit the taking or catching of such fish in such waters, at any time, except in the manner and by the means specified in said orders, rules, regulations or enactments; and shall also contain a section embodying the provisions of section three of this act.

Penalty for violation.

SECTION 3. Any person offending against the provisions or any such orders, rules, regulation or enactment, when so made and established, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars, for each and every offense, with costs of suit, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail of the county in which the offense shall have been committed, until such fine and costs are fully paid, or until discharged by due course of law; one-half of such fine shall be paid to the complainant, and the remainder shall be disposed of the same as other fines.

Sections 21, 23 and 24, chap. 183, R. S. to apply.

SECTION 4. All the provisions of sections twenty-one (21), twenty-three (23) and twenty-four (24), of chapter one hundred and eighty three (183), of the revised statutes of this state, shall apply to and be in force and effect in the construction and enforcement of said orders, rules, regulations and enactments.

SECTION 5. Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all costs [cases] which may arise under the provisions of said orders, rules, regulations or enactments; provided, that the defendant shall not be deprived of a jury trial, nor the right of appeal as in other cases triable in justice's court.

Justices of the peace to have jurisdiction.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1875.
