

CHAPTER 230.

[Published March 19, 1875.]

AN ACT to amend section 29, of chapter eighty-six, of the Revised Statutes, entitled, "of alienation by deed, of the proof and recording of conveyances, and the cancelling of mortgages."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

Certified copy of deed not to be recorded until grantee shall make affidavit that original is lost.

SECTION 1. Section twenty-nine (29), of chapter eighty-six (86) of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by striking out from said section the following clause, to-wit: "Provided, that no such certified copy of the record of any deed shall be recorded until the grantee therein mentioned, or his agent, assigns, heirs, executors or administrators, shall make an affidavit that the original deed is either lost or destroyed, which said affidavit shall be endorsed on, and recorded with said certified copy of the record of such deed," so that said section will read as follows: "Whenever any deed or conveyance of lands situated in different counties within this state shall have been recorded in any county within which any of such lands may be situated, a copy of the record of such deed, certified by the register of deeds of the county in which such deed has been recorded, may be recorded in any other county in which any of such lands may be situated, in the same manner and with the like force and affect as the original deed."

Deeds may be recorded in other than the county in which property lies.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1875.
