[Published February 20, 1875.]

AN ACT to amend section 50, of chapter 119, of the general laws of 1872, entitled "An act in relation to railroads and the organization of railroad companies."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Railroad corporation may change name.

SECTION 1. Section fifty (50), of chapter one hundred and nineteen (119), of the general laws of 1872, entitled, "An act in relation to railroads and the organization of railroad companies," is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Any railroad company incorporated by or under the laws of this state, may, by a majority vote of all its shareholders, change its corporate name and adopt such other corporate name as the shareholders shall designate in the vote or resolution. In the event of any railroad company changing its name as above authorized, the secretary of said railroad company shall file in the office of the secretary of state, a copy of the resolution, certified under his hand and the seal of the company, changing the name as aforesaid, and shall publish the same for three successive weeks in the official state paper, and such change shall take effect from the time when the same is filed with the secretary of state. A transcript of such resolution, or of the record thereof, at any time heretofore or hereafter certified by the secretary of state in due form of law, shall be sufficient evidence of such change of name and of the name adopted, in any and all courts, and in any and all proceedings, all acts and things done or undertaken to be done for the benefit and in behalf of the company, or for which the company shall have been before liable in any way under its former name, shall be to the same and as full extent binding and obligatory in fa-
