

CHAPTER 108.

[Published March 8, 1876.]

AN ACT to appropriate to the Iowa and Door County Agricultural Societies a sum of money therein named.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation. SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of the general fund to the Iowa County Agricultural Society, the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) for the year 1874, and to the Door County Agricultural Society the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) for the year 1875, on proper evidence being furnished to the secretary of state that they have complied with the law in such cases, with the exception of filing their report in due time.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1876.

CHAPTER 109.

[Published March 8, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend sections eleven (11) and thirteen (13), of chapter two hundred and forty-three (243), of the laws of 1874, entitled "An act relating to public printing."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended. SECTION 1. Section eleven (11), of chapter two hundred and forty-three (243), of the laws of 1874, is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 11. The chief clerk of the house, when a joint resolution ordering printing, or any bill has been introduced, shall deliver to the public printer a copy of every such document or other matter, ordered printed, by the two houses of the legislature, on the same day such orders are made, and the same shall be printed with the least possible delay; and the chief clerk of each house shall, within sixty days after the close of each session, furnish to such printer a correct index of the journals of their respective houses.

Duty of chief clerk.

SECTION 2. Section thirteen (13), of chapter two hundred and forty-three (243), of the laws of 1874, is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 13. The journals of the senate and assembly, or "daily slips," printed for the use of the legislature while in session, shall be printed in pamphlet form, on good printing paper, of medium octavo size, on long primer type, and folded without being stitched. The subject matter to be printed in such journals shall correspond in style, as nearly as may be, to the journals of the United States Congress. The composition of such journals or "daily slips," shall be in compact order without unnecessary broken lines; provided, however, each distinct subject shall be in separate paragraphs. Such journals or "daily slips," together with the work mentioned in the preceding section, shall be delivered to the sergeant-at-arms of each house of the legislature, on or before nine o'clock on the morning following the session, except Sunday. Said sergeant-at-arms shall carefully count and receipt for the same. Such receipts shall be made in a suitable book to be provided by the state printer for that purpose.

Amended.

How journals to be printed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1876.

CHAPTER 110.

[Published March 4, 1876.]

AN ACT in relation to the organization of towns.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Hereafter it shall be unlawful for the county board of supervisors of any county in this state, to set off, establish, or organize, any town, or towns, that at the time of such organization does not contain a population of at least one hundred and twenty-five inhabitants, at least twenty-five of whom shall have been actual electors of this state, and residents within the territory of the proposed new town or towns, at least six months prior to the time such organization shall take effect.

Population and number of electors necessary for town organization.