

CHAPTER 127.

[Published March 15, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend section two (2), of title three (3), of chapter two hundred and fifty-three (253), of the private and local laws of 1868, entitled, "an act to revise and amend chapter one hundred and seventy-six (176), of the private and local laws of 1857, entitled, 'An act to amend an act, entitled, an act to incorporate the city of Beloit,' approved March 31, 1856."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

SECTION 1. Section two (2), of title three (3), of chapter two hundred and fifty-three (253), of the private and local laws of 1868, entitled, "An act to revise and amend chapter one hundred and seventy-six (176), of the private and local laws of 1857, entitled, an act to amend an act, entitled, 'an act to incorporate the city of Beloit,' approved March 31, 1856," is hereby amended so that said section shall read as follows: The mayor, when present, shall preside over the meetings of the common council, and take care that the laws of the state and the ordinances of the city are duly observed and enforced, and that all other executive officers of the city discharge their respective duties. He shall from time to time give the common council such information, and recommend such measures as he may deem best for the prosperity and advantage of the city. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer, and the head of the police of the city, and in case of riot or other disturbance, he may appoint as many special or temporary constables as he may deem necessary, and by and with the advice and consent of the common council, he may appoint special constables to serve for such time as the common council may decide. The mayor shall have a vote in the council only in case of a tie.

Duties of mayor.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 6, 1876.
