

CHAPTER 160.

[Published March 16, 1876.]

AN ACT to authorize the city of Racine to transfer moneys, and to levy a tax to cover certain deficiencies.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

City council authorized to transfer funds.

SECTION 1. The city council of the city of Racine, for the purpose of covering the present existing deficiencies in certain funds of said city, are hereby authorized to transfer from its harbor fund, the sum of seven hundred dollars ($700) to the contingent fund; from the sidewalk fund, the sum of five hundred and twenty-three and one-half dollars ($523.50) to the contingent fund; from the bridge fund, eight hundred dollars ($800) to the fire department fund; from the police fund, fourteen hundred dollars ($1,400) to the fire department fund.

Authority to levy special tax.

SECTION 2. Said city of Racine is further authorized to levy, at the next annual levy of city taxes, a tax of seven thousand dollars ($7,000) on the taxable property of said city, in addition to other taxes authorized to be levied by its charter, for the purpose of covering deficiencies now existing in certain funds of said city, which tax shall be credited to the several funds herein named, in the following proportions, viz: To the fire department fund, eighteen hundred dollars ($1800); to the fund for the new school house in the fourth ward, four hundred and five dollars and fifty-eight cents ($405.58); to the school fund proper, three thousand and eight hundred dollars ($3,800), and to the contingent fund, the sum of nine hundred and ninety-four dollars and forty-two cents ($994.42).

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 8, 1876.
