- Fourth ward. shall remain and be the first ward. All that district or part of said city which lies westerly of said Eighth street and north of a line beginning in the center of Eighth street, opposite the center of the alley in block number one hundred and twenty-seven (127), thence west along the center of said alley, as extended, to the center of Water street, thence along the center of Water street, southerly, to the center of Wisconsin street, thence west on a line to the center of said Wisconsin street to the middle of the Sheboygan river, thence following up the river, along the middle of the channel, around the north bend of the same, to the point where the west line of said city crosses or intersects the river, shall be the fourth ward. All that part of said city which lies south of so much of said south line or boundary of the said first and fourth wards as extends between the river on the west, where it is first crossed by Wisconsin street, and Lake Michigan on the east, and which lies northerly of that portion of the channel of the Sheboygan river which extends from the mouth or harbor entrance up to the said point where Wisconsin street first intersects or crosses said river, shall be and remain the second ward. All that district or part of said city south of said Sheboygan river, and south of Virginia street, upon the said south side, which lies east of a line commencing in the common center of Virginia and Buck streets, and running south upon a line with the center of Buck street, [through] "Raab and Meyer's addition," to the south line of the city, shall be the third ward. All that district or part of said city south of the Sheboygan river, which lies north of Virginia street, and that part which lies west of the said west line of the said third ward, shall constitute and be the fifth ward; provided, however, that the said third ward shall have the right and privileges at all times of the free use of the dirt and gravel in streets of which the grade has been established in said fifth ward hereby created.
- Inspectors of election. SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the common council before the annual charter election for 1876, to appoint three electors, resident in said fifth ward, to be inspectors of such election for said fifth ward.
- General powers of council. SECTION 3. Subdivision ten (10) of section five (5), of sub-chapter six (6) of said chapter two hundred and fifty-four (254), is hereby amended so as to read as follows: To license and regulate coachmen, runners, porters, owners and drivers of hacks, cabs, trucks.

drays, omnibuses and stages, and all carriages or vehicles used for the transportation of passengers or merchandise or articles of any kind, and to fix the rates to be paid to or by them; to license and regulate all hawkers, peddlers, common criers, auctioneers or other persons, and to establish rates or fees to be paid by such persons, not actual residents of the city of Sheboygan, who shall endeavor to procure or make the sale of goods, wares or merchandise of any kind, excepting agricultural products or provisions, or articles manufactured entirely in this state, by traveling from house to house, or from place to place, in said city, or by offering the same for sale from temporary stands or places in said city; and to prohibit traffic by such persons until licensed therefor by said city; and to provide and enforce suitable penalties for violations of ordinances or regulations made thereupon. Ordinances and regulations heretofore passed, and acts thereunder, are hereby legalized and declared of full force and virtue.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 10, 1876.
