

28th. To appoint night watchmen for any term not ^{Watchmen.} to exceed the unexpired term of office of the board of trustees making such appointments, and to provide for their payment out of the general funds of said village, and any person so appointed shall have all powers, during the term of such appointments, of constables elected under the general laws of this state so far as necessary for the preservation of the peace and good order of said village.

29th. To regulate the police and firemen of said ^{Police and firemen.} village; to prescribe their duties, provide for their compensation, and to punish their misconduct in office, by fine or discharge, or both, when deemed necessary, and to discharge them at their option.

SECTION 2. Section twenty-six (26), of said chapter ^{Amended.} one hundred and fifty-two (152), is hereby amended by inserting six hundred (600) in the place of four hundred (400), whenever it occurs in said section.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 16, 1876.

CHAPTER 32.

[Published March 1, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend section one (1), of chapter seventeen (17), of the general laws of 1874, relating to the lien law, extending the provisions of said law to the counties of Taylor and Lincoln.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one (1), of chapter seventeen ^{Amended.} (17), of the general laws of 1874, entitled, "An act to amend section one (1), of chapter one hundred (100), of the general laws of 1867, relating to the lien law, extending the provisions of said law to Outagamie county," is hereby amended by inserting the words "Taylor" and "Lincoln," after the word "Outagamie," so as to read as follows: Section one (1). Any person or corporation that shall furnish any supplies, or that may do or perform any labor or services in cutting, falling, hauling, driving, running, rafting, booming, cribbing, or towing any logs or timber in the counties of Pierce, St. Croix, Polk, Dallas,

Burnett, Douglas, La Pointe, Ashland, Jackson, Clark, La Crosse, Marathon, Portage, Wood, Manitowoc, Shawano, Door, Kewaunee, Oconto, Outagamie, Taylor, Lincoln, and Brown, in this state, shall have a lien thereon for such supplies, labor or services, and the same shall take precedence of all other claims thereon. The provisions of this act shall apply to all such labor or services that may have been done prior to the passage of this act, as far as the provisions of this act can be made applicable thereto, and the person, company or corporation that may have done or performed the same can comply with the provisions of this act. And all proceedings in the said counties of Taylor and Lincoln heretofore had, to secure any such lien, under the act or acts of which this act is amendatory, shall be held and deemed to be a compliance with the provisions of this act, the same as if had after the passage of this act.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 16, 1876.

CHAPTER 33.

[Published February 19, 1876.]

AN ACT to repeal chapter one hundred and seventeen (117), laws of 1869, and chapter nineteen (19), laws of 1871, entitled "An act to provide for a system of county highways in Brown county, and for the adoption of such system by other counties."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Chapter one hundred and seventeen (117), laws of 1869, and chapter nineteen (19), laws of 1871, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 16, 1876.
