

CHAPTER 360.

[Published April 4, 1876.]

AN ACT to prevent the hunting of deer with dogs.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to hunt, chase, drive, worry or kill, with a dog or dogs, any wild buck, doe or fawn, at any time; and any person or persons offending against the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty dollars, and not more than thirty dollars, for each and every offense, together with costs of suit, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail of the county wherein the offense was committed, until said fine and costs are fully paid or are discharged according to law; and in all conditions [convictions] under this act, one-half of all fines and penalties shall be paid over by the justice of the peace to the person who shall inform or make the complaint in the case.

SECTION 2. Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all cases which may arise under the provisions of this act; provided, that the defendant shall not be deprived of a jury trial, nor of his rights of appeal as in other cases.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 13, 1876.

CHAPTER 361.

[Published April 4, 1876.]

AN ACT to provide for the payment of fees to garnishees.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all actions or proceedings hereafter commenced in any of the courts of this state, in which any person or corporation shall be summoned as garnishee, the person summoned to answer in such Unlawful to hunt deer with dogs.

Penalty for violation of act

Jurisdiction of justices.

Parties summoned as garnishee to receive fees as witness.

garnishee suit or proceeding shall be entitled to receive the same fees for travel and attendance as is now allowed to witnesses in all courts in which said garnishee is summoned to appear, and such garnishee shall not be bound to appear or answer unless his fees for travel and at least one day's attendance, shall be paid him at the time of the service of the garnishee process upon him, and such fees shall be taxed as costs in the action or proceeding in the same manner as witness fees are now taxed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 13, 1876.

CHAPTER 362.

[Published April 1, 1876.]

AN ACT concerning the time of payment of salaries of certain officers and employes of the state.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No state officer, judges of the supreme court, judges of the circuit courts, nor any appointee to an office or employe of the state who shall be subject to removal from office or place by the appointing power, shall be permitted to draw any salary or compensation from the state treasury in advance, and all such officers who may be appointed to any office or place by the governor, or by any other state officer or officers, whose salaries are made payable quarterly by law, shall not receive or draw any such salary or compensation until the end of each month after he or they shall have taken possession of such office.

When payment of salaries to be made.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect immediately after its passage and publication, and all acts and parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved March 13, 1876.