CHAPTER 127.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to amend and add to an act entitled 'an act to consolidate chapter 49 of the private and local laws of 1855, entitled an act to incorporate the village of Madison into a separate school district,'" and all acts amendatory thereof, being chapter 203 of the private and local laws of 1867.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 203 of the private and local laws of 1867, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: "And in addition to the other taxable property now attached to said city for school purposes, the following mentioned property is attached to said city for school purposes only, to wit: All that part and portion of section 26 of the town of Madison, now owned by and occupied by and assessed to Edwin E. Bryant, being fourteen and 10 100 acres on the south shore of Lake Monona, and the personal property of the occupant thereof; and also all that part of the said section now owned and occupied by and assessed to Daniel O'Sheridan, and the personal property of the owner thereof, so that section as amended shall read as follows: Section 1. All taxable property within those portions of the towns of Blooming Grove and Madison which are now or shall hereafter be attached to or connected with the city of Madasson for school purposes, shall henceforth be subject to be taxed for the support and maintenance of the schools of said city, the same as property within said city. And in addition to the other taxable property now attached to said city for school purposes, the following mentioned property is attached to said city for school purposes only, to wit: All that part and portion of section 26 of the town of Madison now owned and occupied by Edwin E. Bryant, being 14 and 10-100 acres on the south shore of Lake Monona, and the personal property of the occupant thereof; and also all that part of the said section now owned and occupied by and assessed to Daniel O'Sheridan, and the personal property of the owner thereof."

Amended.
