

dollars shall become absolutely forfeited to the county of Milwaukee.

SECTION 4. If a bid be rejected, said certificate of the county treasurer and such agreement shall be returned to the bidder, otherwise the same shall be retained until such contract and bond be fully complied with as hereinafter provided for, when said five hundred dollars shall be returned to the contractor.

SECTION 5. Said county clerk shall, on the Tuesday hereinbefore mentioned, in the presence of the committee on printing of said county board of supervisors, open all such proposals, and in the presence of said committee enter upon his minutes a record of said proposals respectively, with the price at which each such newspaper offers to do the work, and said clerk shall also furthermore enter upon his minutes an order awarding such printing to one English and one German newspaper published in said city of Milwaukee, as shall respectively offer to do such printing at the lowest price for the year ensuing after the day of making the award. If, however, any two or more of such bids shall be for the same price, then the printing shall be awarded to the paper having the largest circulation.

SECTION 6. The newspapers to which such contract is awarded shall each thereupon give bond, with acceptable sureties, in the penal sum of two thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of their contract; said bond, however, must be approved by the said county board of supervisors.

SECTION 7. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 7, 1877.

[Published March 21, 1877.]

CHAPTER 222.

AN ACT relating to foreclosure sale [and] amendatory of section two of chapter 299 of the general laws of 1863.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of chapter 299 of the general laws of 1863, is hereby amended by adding thereto

Sale not to be set aside.

the following words, viz.: "And any such sale heretofore made or hereafter to be made, in good faith, shall not be vacated or set aside, by reason of the fact that a judgment for any deficiency remaining due, after the application of the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the amount adjudged due, with interest and costs, has been included in the original judgment of foreclosure; or by reason of the reversal of such judgment, in whole or in part, because of such fact, unless upon due inquiry it shall be made to appeal [appear] affirmatively to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendant has suffered material injury by reason of such fact.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 7, 1877.

[Published March 15, 1877.]

CHAPTER 223.

AN ACT to amend chapter 72, of the private and local laws of 1870, entitled "An act to enable the city of Watertown to settle its railroad debt," approved February 17, 1870.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

SECTION 1. Section one, of chapter seventy-two (72), of the private and local laws of eighteen hundred and seventy (1870), entitled "An act to enable the city of Watertown to settle its railroad debt," approved February 17, 1870, is hereby amended by adding to section one, at the end of said section, the following words: provid d, further, that no new bonds shall be issued or exchanged under this act after the first day of April, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight (1878).

When new bonds not to be issued.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 7, 1877.