CHAPTER 219.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the city of Wausau to take up and retire its outstanding indebtedness and to issue its bonds for that purpose.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Retirement of bonds authorized—how effected.

SECTION 1. The common council of the city of Wausau is hereby authorized and empowered to take up and retire all outstanding bonds of said city, heretofore issued for any purpose, either by said common council, or by any of the officers of said city (said city comprising but one school district), or by any of its officers, or by the board of education of said city ; and for such purpose the common council of said city is hereby authorized and empowered through the mayor and clerk of said city, by the order and direction of the common council, to issue the bonds of said city, payable to bearer, at a rate of interest not exceeding eight per centum per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, and the principal payable at some future time, not exceeding fifteen years from the date of such bonds; and the said common council, for such purpose may negotiate and sell the said bonds, which bonds when so issued shall be and remain a debt against said city until the full amount of the principal and interest thereof shall be paid according to the terms thereof; and for the payment of the interest and principal thereof, taxes shall annually be assessed and collected upon all the taxable property within said city, or property taxable therein, sufficient to pay the same, as the same falls due: provided, that the indebtedness of said city shall not by the issue of such bonds at the time, exceed in the aggregate five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, as shall appear by the last assessment roll for state and county taxes next preceding the incurring of said indebtedness.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 16, 1878.
