CHAPTER 193.

AN ACT to provide for service of process upon transportation companies, and the appointment of an attorney therefor within this state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Attorney for each county wherein business is done, to be appointed.

SECTION 1. Every association, company or corporation, domestic or foreign, not duly organized and incorporated under the laws of this state formed for the purpose of transportation of passengers or property either by boats, vessels, rail, stages, or other means, doing or desiring to do any business in this state, before doing any such business, shall first deposit in his office with the clerk of the circuit court of each county in the state in which they propose to do or shall do such business, a written instrument duly signed by the president and secretary thereof, and under their seal, if they shall have such officers and seal, otherwise by the principal officers thereof, and therein appoint an attorney to reside in this state, and have an office therein, specifying his place of residence and office, upon whom and where any summons, notice, pleading or process of any court of this state or in any action therein, may be served, and shall therein stipulate that any service of any such summons, notice, pleading or process upon any such attorney, or in his absence at his said office, in any action brought against it in this state, upon any cause of action arising out any business or transaction in this state, shall be accepted irrevocably as a valid service upon such association, company or corporation. Unless another attorney shall be subsequently appointed with like authority in his stead, such authority shall be continued unrevoked while any liability remains outstanding against said association, company or corporation in this state, and such an appointment shall not be revoked until another be made, and a like written instrument of appointment deposited and filed as aforesaid. The service aforesaid may be so made by any sheriff or proper officer of this state, or any third person not a party to the action. No such association, company or corporation shall do any business within this state until they comply with the provisions of this act: provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing or in any manner affecting the provisions of chapter one hundred and twenty of the revised statutes of 1878, entitled "of the manner of commencing civil actions."

Compliance with these provisions required.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1880.
