CHAPTER 29.

AN ACT for the protection of passengers on railroad cars, and conferring police powers on conductors and agents, in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

When conductor is authorized to arrest.

SECTION 1. In case it shall become necessary for the protection of the passengers on any railroad car from the violent, abusive, profane, or indecent language or conduct of any passenger, the conductor of such train is hereby authorized and empowered to arrest summarily and without process such passenger, and remove him to the baggage car, or some safe and secure place on such train, until its arrival at some usual stopping place, when he may be put off the train and put into the custody of some proper officer for prosecution; if necessary for this purpose, railroad conductors, while in charge of trains, are hereby invested with the powers of sheriffs and constables.

Penalty for boisterous conduct and for gambling.

SECTION 2 Any person who shall, while riding in the car, either of a freight or passenger or other train, on any railroad in this state, use or utter indecent, obscene, or profane language, in the hearing of other passengers, or riotously or boisterously conduct himself to the annoyance of other passengers, or who shall obtain any money or property from any passenger or person in such car by means of any game or device, or attempt so to do, shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Conductors invested with powers of sheriffs and constables.

Railroad conductors are hereby invested with the powers of sheriffs and constables in regard to offenses under this section, occurring upon trains or cars in their charge, and are empowered to arrest summarily and without process and detain any person violating any of its provisions until the car or train shall arrive at some usual stopping place, where a sheriff deputy, or under
