CHAPTER 42.

AN ACT authorizing the towns of Sigel and Flambeau, in Chippewa county, Wisconsin, to levy a special tax for the purpose of paying off certain bonds, and empowering the board of supervisors of Chippewa county to adjust the indebtedness of said towns.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Levy for special tax to apply only to certain territory.

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of the town of Sigel, Chippewa county, Wisconsin, is hereby authorized, and it shall be the duty of said board at its next annual meeting for the purpose of levying taxes, to levy a special tax for the purpose of paying off its proportion of indebtedness due on certain bonds issued by the town of Anson, in said county, on the 24th day of October, 1873: provided, said levy shall apply only to and such tax be levied upon the territory included in towns thirty-five (35), thirty-six (36) and thirty-seven (37), ranges three (3), four (4) and five (5) west, in said county.

Duty of town board to levy special tax.

SECTION 2. The board of supervisors of the town of Flambeau, in said county, is hereby authorized, and it shall be the duty of said board to levy a special tax upon all the property in said town liable to taxation, at its next annual meeting, for the purpose of levying taxes, sufficient to pay off its indebtedness due on said bonds, except such as is hereby authorized to be levied by said town of Sigel.

Duty of county board.

SECTION 3. The board of supervisors of Chippewa county, Wisconsin, is hereby authorized, and it shall be its duty, to determine what portion of the indebtedness which at the time of the division of said town of Flambeau had been then legally incurred, should be chargeable to the portion detached from said town of Flambeau and annexed to said town of Sigel. The said board of supervisors, in fixing the proportion of indebtedness chargeable to said detached portion, shall proceed in the manner provided by section six hundred and seventy-two of the revised statutes of 1878, and the said town of Sigel shall pay the proportion of said indebtedness so declared chargeable to such detached portion when the same shall become payable, and for that purpose the town board of said town of Sigel shall levy a tax upon all the taxable property of such detached portion so chargeable therewith, sufficient to pay the same.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 26, 1880.
