CHAPTER 101.

AN ACT to amend section three hundred and thirty-one of chapter twenty of the revised statutes of 1878, entitled "of public printing."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and thirty-one of chapter twenty of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended by inserting in the first line in said section after the words "of weekly," the words "or daily," so that said section will read as follows: Section 331. All publishers of weekly or daily newspapers having a bona fide circulation and subscription of not less than two hundred names, and which shall have been regularly published for three months prior to the opening of the annual session of the legislature, who shall publish in their respective newspapers all of the public acts of general interest, passed at any annual session of the legislature, which shall be designated by the secretary of state in the official state paper as copy laws, shall be allowed sixty dollars for such publication, upon filing satisfactory evidence, by affidavit, with the secretary of state, that the same have been published as provided in this section, which amount shall be paid out of the state treasury, provided that such publishers shall not receive compensation for such publication in both daily and weekly.

Publishers of daily papers entitled to compensation for publishing laws.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 17, 1881.

Handwritten notes in the left margin: a vertical line with several 'u' characters and a 'y' at the bottom.
