CHAPTER 190.

AN ACT to provide for a settlement between the counties of Shawano and Langlade.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Commissioners

SECTION 1. D. H. Pulcifer and George W. Radcliffe are duly constituted a board of commissioners, for the purpose of making a permanent settlement of all accounts now existing between the counties of Shawano and Langlade.

In case of disagreement.

SECTION 2. In case the above named commissioners shall be unable to agree, they, or either of them, shall apply to the circuit judge of the tenth judicial circuit, who shall appoint some disinterested person as a commissioner, who shall act with the other two commissioners in making a settlement between the said counties of Shawano and Langlade, and the settlement so made shall be held to be final and binding between the two counties.

SECTION 3. The commissioners shall meet in the village of Shawano, in Shawano county, on the second Tuesday in May, 1881, for the purpose of making the settlement provided for in this act, but may adjourn, if they deem it necessary, but not beyond the first day of August, 1881. First meeting.

SECTION 4. In case either of the above named commissioners shall from any cause be unable to act, the circuit judge of the tenth judicial circuit shall appoint some one residing in the county in which the commissioner resided who was unable to serve, and the person so appointed shall constitute one of the commissioners, under the provisions of this act. Appointment to fill vacancy.

SECTION 5. The commissioners provided for in this act shall receive three dollars per day for all the time actually spent in the discharge of their duties, and ten cents a mile from their place of residence to the place of meeting and return, each county to pay one-half of the expense incurred in making the settlement. Compensation.

SECTION 6. When the commissioners shall have completed the settlement provided for in this act, they shall file a certified statement of the same with the county clerk of each of the counties of Shawano and Langlade, together with a statement of the amount due them for per diem and mileage, with affidavit attached. Then the clerk and chairman of each of the counties of Shawano and Langlade shall issue county orders to them for the amounts due for services and mileage, as provided for in section five of this act, each county to issue orders for one-half the amount due. Duty upon completion of settlement.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1881.
