CHAPTER 312.

AN ACT to amend section four thousand five hundred and six-four of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter two hundred and seventy-seven of the laws of 1880, relating to the preservation of game.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

When the taking of game is prohibited.

SECTION 1. Section four thousand five hundred and sixty-four of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter two hundred and seventy-seven of the laws of 1880, is hereby amended by striking out the words "thirtieth day of November," where they occur in the ninth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof, the words "first day of January," also by striking out the word "first," where it occurs in the tenth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "fifteenth," so that said section, when so amended, shall read as follows: Section 4564. Any person who shall take, catch, kill, destroy or wantonly molest, or have in his possession when killed or taken, or expose for sale in this state, any woodcock, between the first day of January and the succeeding tenth day of July, and any quail, partridge, pheasant or ruffed grouse, prairie hen or prairie chicken, sharp-tailed grouse, or grouse of other variety, or any wood duck, mallard or teal duck, between the first day of January and the succeeding fifteenth day of August in any year; or any wild deer, buck, doe or fawn, between the first day of January and the succeeding fifteenth day of September; or any otter, mink, martin, muskrat or fisher, between the first day of May and the succeeding first day of November, shall be punished by fine not exceeding ten dollars nor less than one dollar, for each bird or animal so unlawfully taken, killed, had in possession, or exposed for sale.

Approved April 2, 1881.

CHAPTER 313.

AN ACT to amend sections three thousand seven hundred and eighteen, three thousand seven hundred and twenty-one and three thousand seven hundred and twenty-two of the revised statutes, entitled of garnishment.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3721. On the appearance of the garnishee before the justice, the affidavit aforesaid shall be deemed a sufficient complaint in this action; and the justice shall forthwith proceed to examine the said garnishee and his witnesses touching the matters alleged in the affidavit, and shall reduce the answer of said garnishee and his witnesses to writing, and file the same with the papers in the case; such examination may be adjourned by said garnishee, as in case of a second adjournment in justice's court in civil actions.

Garnishee to be examined.

SECTION 2. Section three thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3722. If the plaintiff shall not be satisfied with the answer of the garnishee, or if either party shall desire a trial, the justice shall enter the fact in his docket, and the case shall be proceeded with and tried upon the issue formed by the affidavit and answer, as in other actions commenced by summons; and if, upon the trial of any such issue, property or effects shall be found in the hands of the garnishee, or it shall appear that such garnishee was indebted to the defendant, the justice or jury shall assess the value thereof, and the garnishee may hold the same, subject to the further order of the justice.

Trial if plaintiff is dissatisfied with answer.
