If the bonds so offered for sale shall not have been sold, as authorized by this act, or if any portion of them shall remain unsold at the expiration of thirty days, such bonds so remaining unsold may then be disposed of by the statutory authorities in such manner as in their judgment will be for the best interests of the bond payers; but in no case shall new bonds be sold except at a rate of interest as low as that borne by the bonds for which the new bonds are to be exchanged. Such new bonds shall bear date and draw interest from the date of the payment of the bonds so retired, and shall be made payable at some stated place within the state of Wisconsin, and during the period of thirty days in which they shall be offered for sale within the county, city, village or town issuing them, as provided in this section, they shall be of denominations not exceeding one hundred dollars, nor less than twenty-five dollars; but after the expiration of said period of thirty days, they may be of any denomination in the discretion of the constituted and statutory authorities empowered to issue them. Where payable.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 19, 1881.
