CHAPTER 32.

AN ACT to provide for the appointment of registers in probate.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Register in probate.

SECTION 1. The county judge of the county of Dane shall appoint from time to time, subject to removal, a competent person to record the proceedings of the county court of Dane county, and the person so appointed shall be officially styled and known as "register in probate." Such register in probate shall, before entering upon the duties of the office, take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office, and file the same, duly certified in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county of Dane, and shall execute to the county of Dane a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the said county judge, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required by law to be performed by such register in probate; which bond, with approval indorsed thereon, shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county of Dane.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of such register in probate to record all wills admitted to probate by the county court of the county of Dane, all letters testamentary, letters of administration, letters of guardianship, bonds of guardians, orders, judgments and decrees granted or made by said county court, and all other proceedings and matters required by law to be recorded in said county court. Duties of same.

SECTION 3. The appointment of any such register in probate may at any time, in the discretion of said county judge, be revoked and annulled by said county judge, and whenever, for or from any cause a vacancy shall exist in said office of register in probate, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by said county judge. Appointment may be revoked.

SECTION 4. Such register in probate shall receive the annual salary of six hundred dollars, which shall be paid by the county of Dane, and the county treasurer of the county of Dane shall pay the same quarterly, and the same shall be in full compensation for the performance of the duties of such register in probate. Salary.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
