

veigled or kidnaped shall not be a defense, unless it shall be made satisfactorily to appear that such consent was not obtained by fraud, nor extorted or forced by duress or threats.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1883.

[No. 75 A.]

[Published April 8, 1883.]

CHAPTER 258.

AN ACT to provide for the annual publication of a railroad map, and appropriating money therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There shall be published annually, under the supervision of the railroad commissioner, three thousand copies of the railroad map of Wisconsin, two thousand copies to be distributed with the annual report of the railroad commissioner, four hundred copies to be distributed by the state superintendent of public instruction among the schools of the state, and the remainder to be distributed by the railroad commissioner. There shall also be published thirty-five hundred copies of said map over and above the number hereinbefore provided for, for the use of the present legislature, and thirty-five hundred copies for each legislature biennially thereafter.

Appropriation
for railroad
map.

SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated annually, out of the state treasury, a sum sufficient for the purposes in this act mentioned.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1883.

[No. 443, A.]

[Published April 14, 1883.]

CHAPTER 259.

AN ACT to authorize Louis Navotney and Joseph Navotney to erect, construct and maintain a dam in Springbrook, Langlade county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Louis Navotney and Joseph Navotney, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to

May construct a dam.