CHAPTER 268.

AN ACT to amend section 19, of chapter 298, of laws of 1881, entitled "an act relating to the charitable, reformatory and penal institutions of Wisconsin, and to provide for the more efficient supervision and management thereof and to repeal certain provisions of law relating thereto."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Relating to the charitable, reformatory and penal institutions.

SECTION 1. Section 19, of chapter 298, of the laws of 1881, is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 19. The state board of charities and reform shall visit from time to time, and inspect the interior management of said institutions, and shall have access to all parts of either of said institutions, and to all inmates thereof. They may visit, inquire into and examine as to the condition and management thereof, and shall make such suggestions in writing as they may deem best to the state board of supervision, having the above named institutions in charge, and shall include in their annual report to the governor any information and suggestions, reports relating to said institutions as they may deem proper. The governor shall also, after each election of members of the legislature, and before the first of December following, appoint a visiting committee of three, one from the members of the senate elect, and two from the members of the assembly elect, who shall visit each of the institutions above named before the assembling of the legislature. Said committees shall have the same powers as the state board of charities in regard to said institutions, and their actual expenses shall be paid by appropriations sufficient to meet the same.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1883.
