CHAPTER 313.

AN ACT to enable the city of Watertown to settle its railroad debts and to repeal chapter 169 of the laws of 1881.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Authorized to issue bonds.

SECTION 1. The city of Watertown, in the state of Wisconsin, is authorized to issue bonds payable in fifteen equal yearly installments, to the amount in all of fifty per cent. of the principal of all bonds outstanding, which were issued by said city to aid in the construction of railroads, without any allowance for interest which has accrued thereon and remains unpaid. Said new bonds to be issued by virtue of this act, shall bear interest at the rate of six (6) per cent. per annum, payable annually, and shall have interest coupons attached for said interest, and in each coupon shall also be embraced said annual installments of principal; and the bonds shall be so drawn that when coupons for such interest and including said installments of principal are paid, the bonds themselves shall be fully satisfied and discharged.
