CHAPTER 215.

AN ACT to prescribe more fully the duties of the County Superintendent of Schools.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

County superintendent not allowed to teach during his term of office.

SECTION 1. No county superintendent of schools (except as hereinafter provided), shall engage in teaching during the term for which he was elected, nor shall any person under contract to teach, be qualified to hold the office of county superintendent of schools.

Must not be absent from his post of duty.

SECTION 2. No county superintendent of schools shall engage in any profession or occupation, nor shall he absent himself from the county or district for which he is elected, to engage in any occupation, profession or pursuit during the term for which he is elected, for such time or in such manner as to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties as superintendent of schools.

May be removed from office for violation.

SECTION 3. Any county superintendent of schools who neglects or violates any of the provisions of sections 1 or 2, of this act, shall be subject to removal from office.

Exemptions.

SECTION 4. None of the provisions of this act shall be applicable to counties in which the salary of county superintendent of schools, is less than eight hundred dollars per annum.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1885.

CHAPTER 217.

AN ACT to amend chapter 48, section 1033, of the revised statutes regarding the assessment of taxes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1033, of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1033. The assessors of each assessment district shall begin on the first day of May in each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and proceed to make an assessment of all the real and personal property liable to taxation in such district. All personal property shall be assessed as of the first day of May in such year, but the assessment of merchants' and manufacturers' stock shall be based on the average amount held during the preceding year ending on the first day of May. Real property may be assessed at any time between the first day of May and the time of the sitting of the board of review for such district.

Regarding assessment of taxes.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1885.
