

the credits from the county, town, village, city or school-district from which the same shall have been detached, which shall be apportioned by ascertaining what ratio the portion detached bears to the territory from which the same was detached, and the last prior assessment shall be used as the basis in determining the same.

SECTION 3. When any territory shall be detached from any county, town, city, village or school-district in this state, it shall in no manner invalidate or interfere with the collection of taxes in such territory, but they shall be collected and the returns made, the same as if the territory was not detached therefrom. Shall not invalidate title.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 3, 1885.

[No. 97, S.]

[Published April 15, 1885.]

CHAPTER 335.

AN ACT to effect the conveyances of land in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Every instrument in writing heretofore made, purporting to convey real estate, and which shall have been duly signed and witnessed and sealed, according to the laws of this state in force at the time of the making of such instrument, but which shall not have been acknowledged in the form prescribed by law, by reason of the omission in the acknowledgment of the words, "to me known to be the person who executed the _____ instrument," or words of identity of similar import, is hereby declared to be and to have been a full and perfect conveyance and acknowledgment of the real estate therein described, and as therein purported to be conveyed, and the record thereof, heretofore made, is hereby declared to be and to have been legal and valid; and every such instrument and the acknowledgment thereof as hereinbefore stated, together with the record of the Conveyances of land in certain cases.

same, shall be receivable in evidence with the same force and effect as if it had been acknowledged in the form prescribed by law at the time of its execution; provided, however, that this act shall not apply to tax deeds where the former owner or owners of the land therein described, shall have, prior to the passage of this act, redeemed the same from the taxes upon which said deed issued.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 7, 1885.

[No. 287, A.]

[Published April 15, 1885.]

CHAPTER 336.

AN ACT to amend subdivision 11, of section 2982, revised statutes of 1878, relating to executions.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Exemption of laborers' wages.

SECTION 1. Subdivision 11, of section 2982, revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended by adding the following words thereto: "Provided, that no sum exceeding the sum of four hundred dollars shall be exempt from execution for payment of wages of laborers or servants for services rendered the defendant."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 7, 1885.