JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 34.

To amend section 1, article 10, of the constitution, relating to education.

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That section 1, of article 10, of the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, be amended, so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. The supervision of common schools shall be vested in a state superintendent and such other officers as the legislatures shall direct. The legislature may prescribe by law the qualifications of the state superintendent, and of all other officers intrusted with the supervision of common schools. The state superintendent and such other officers entrusted with the supervision of common schools, shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the state, or respective districts, at such time and in such manner as the legislature shall provide. The powers, duties and compensation of all such officers shall be provided for by law.

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 35.

The following joint resolution, proposed by Hon. Pliny Norcross, in the assembly at Madison, February 6, 1885, was adopted unanimously by both houses of the legislature:

WHEREAS, The World's Exposition, now in session at New Orleans, after a competition which embraced the dairy products of England, Denmark, Holland, and in fact, the entire world, has awarded to the dairy farmers and associations of Wisconsin the following high premiums: Ten important premiums on butter. Ten important premiums, largely first, on Cheddar cheese, together with the grand sweepstakes prize of one hundred and fifty dollars and gold medal in this class. Besides in the great pro rata prize of one thousand dollars to be divided among all exhibitors in this class taking premiums, there were awarded fifty-five premiums and Wisconsin sweeps the board by taking fifty out of the fifty-five. In the grand prize of three hundred dollars to any dairy association or dairy board of trade, the Wisconsin Dairymen's Association, takes the first and the Sheboygan County Board of Trade the second, of two hundred dollars. In the largest and best display of cheese by any individual manufacturer in the world, Wisconsin takes
