AN ACT to amend chapter 60, of the laws of 1885, entitled, "an act to amend section 2265, of the revised statutes of 1878, relating to the vacation of plats."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending section 2265, R. S.

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 60, of the laws of 1885, is hereby so amended as to read as follows: Section 1. Section 2265, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 2265. The circuit courts may, upon the application of the proprietor or proprietors of any recorded plat of lands, whether made under the provisions of this chapter, or under the provisions of any law of this state heretofore in force; and whether the same shall have been heretofore designated as a city or village plat, or addition thereto, or otherwise, or upon the application of the proprietor or proprietors of any part of any such plat, or of any lot therein, alter or vacate such plat, or any part thereof. Such application shall be made to the circuit court for the county in which said plat, or part thereof, is situated. Notice of such application shall be given by posting a written notice thereof in at least two of the most public places in the county, and by publishing a copy of the same in a newspaper printed or circulated in said county, once in each week, at least eight weeks prior to the sitting of the court to which the application is intended to be made, and by the service of such notice in the manner required for the service of a summons in the circuit court, on the officers of the town, city or village in which such plat or part thereof is situated, at least two weeks previous to the time fixed for the hearing of such application.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1887.
