CHAPTER 308.

AN ACT to amend chapter 89, of the revised statutes of 1878, entitled, "of town insurance companies."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending ch. 89, R. S., and creating section 1932a in town insurance companies.

SECTION 1. Chapter 89, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by adding thereto another section, to be known as section 1932a, as follows: Section 1932a. At the annual meeting of any town insurance corporation, a majority of the stockholders present may by ballot decide to insure any property of the kind mentioned in section 1931, against damage and loss by windstorms, cyclones and tornadoes, under the same rules and restrictions as are now provided by chapter 89, laws of the state of Wisconsin, relating to town insurance companies; provided, that before said annual meeting, thirty days' previous notice be given by the secretary of such incorporation, to each of its stockholders, of said proposed change, upon the request in writing signed by ten or more of its stockholders, that said question will be submitted for consideration at said annual meeting. It shall be the duty of said secretary, if said request shall be filed with him so that he can give the aforesaid notice, to mail to each of said stockholders notice of said proposed matter directed to them respectively at their usual postoffice address.
