CHAPTER 380.

AN ACT relating to enforcement of judgments affecting real property, and for the transmission of the judgment rolls, papers, entries, orders and minutes in actions affecting real property from the county wherein judgment is rendered to the county wherein such property is situate.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Judgments affecting real property.

SECTION 1. Whenever a judgment affecting real property shall be rendered in any county other than that in which the property affected thereby is situate, the court in which such judgment was rendered may, at any time thereafter, order that the judgment roll in the action wherein said judgment was rendered, with all papers filed therein and copies of all entries, orders and minutes made therein shall be by the clerk of said court certified and transmitted to the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein such property is situate; or such court wherein such judgment was rendered may instead order that certified copies of such judgment roll, papers, orders, entries and minutes be so transmitted, and upon the filing of such original judgment roll, papers and copies of orders, entries and minutes, or of such certified copies in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of such county wherein such property is situate all proceedings for the enforcement or carrying into effect of such judgment may be had in the circuit court for the county in which said property is situate, with the same force and effect as if said judgment had been originally entered therein; provided, that this section shall not be construed as depriving the court wherein said judgment was rendered of concurrent jurisdiction of proceedings to enforce and carry such judgment into effect when certified copies of the judgment roll and papers, instead of the original judgment roll and papers, shall be so transmitted.

Court may order judgment roll, etc., filed in clerk's office of county where real estate affected situate.

Effect of.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
