CHAPTER 393.

AN ACT to amend chapter 17, of the revised statutes, relating to the trust funds and their management.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 262, of chapter 17, of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended by striking out the following words: "And shall vote in like manner to raise by tax, to be levied and collected within two years thereafter, a sum equal to at least one half of the amount of such loan to be applied for, to be used in addition to such loan in erecting school buildings in such district." Said section, when so amended, shall read as follows: Section 262. Before applying for such loan, every school district shall authorize such application by a vote of a majority of the legal voters of said district voting on such question; and if at a special meeting, the objects of such meetings shall be clearly stated in the notice thereof, and such district shall not thereafter rescind said tax, reconsider such vote, or in any wise hinder, delay or postpone the levy and collection or the tax so voted, and shall not expend the money so raised or loaned for any other purpose. Application for such loan shall be made by the district board of such school district in writing, stating the amount required, the assessed valuation of the taxable real property of such district, and the total assessed valuation of the taxable property of such district as shown by the last assessment roll; and if such district be a joint district, such assessed valuations in its several parts separately, so that the valuations of so much thereof as lies in each town of which it is a part may be readily known; and the total amount of all the other indebtedness of such district and the facts in detail in respect to the holding of the meeting and passing the votes required as aforesaid, and shall be accompanied by a correct map or plat of such district. Such application and

CHAPTER 394.

AN ACT to authorize John S. Owen, his assigns, or legal representatives, to construct and maintain dams on Long lake branch of White river, Long lake and the intermediate lakes on said branch and the tributaries of said branch, for hydraulic, log driving and other purposes, and to improve the navigation of said waters.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Dams on White river, Long lake, etc., Bay-
field county.

How built, etc.

SECTION 1. John S. Owen, his assigns and legal representatives, are hereby authorized to construct and maintain dams at any points on Long lake branch of White river, Long lake and the intermediate lakes on said branch, and on the tributaries of said branch above the east line of section thirteen, of town forty-five north, of range seven west, in Bayfield county, Wisconsin, on lands owned or controlled by them. Said dams to be constructed for the purpose of facilitating the driving of logs and timber down said lakes and streams. Suitable slides, however, to be built in said dams for running logs and timber belonging to any and all other parties over the same, free of all expense or charges. And they are hereby authorized, by means of the said dams, or of dams heretofore constructed and owned by them or any of them, to take possession of the water
