

sum of ten cents per thousand feet board measure for all logs and timber put into said Four Mile creek as toll, on all such logs and timber so designed and intended to be floated or driven down the same.

To be a lien.

SECTION 5. All tolls authorized by this act shall be a lien upon all logs or timber so driven, run or floated down said stream, which lien may be enforced against said logs or timber in the same manner as liens for work and labor in cutting, hauling or manufacturing logs or timber.

Right reserved.

SECTION 6. The legislature hereby reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this act.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 11, 1889.

[No. 255, A.]

[Published March 13, 1889.]

CHAPTER 78.

AN ACT providing for a deputy coroner in counties having a population exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Deputy coroner may be appointed in counties of 150,000; salary.

SECTION 1. The coroner of every county in the state having a population of over one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants is hereby authorized to appoint, subject to the confirmation of the county board, a deputy coroner, who shall assist him in the performance of his duties as the coroner may direct; the said deputy coroner shall receive a salary to be fixed by the county board at the time of his appointment and confirmation not less than nine hundred dollars and not to exceed one thousand dollars per annum, with the discretion of the county board; and it shall be the duty of the proper county officers to pay to said deputy coroner the said compensation fixed by the said county board in equal monthly installments at the end of each and every month during his term of office. Said deputy coroner shall be required to give no bond and the said coroner shall be responsible for his official acts.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. Repeal.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect from and after the time of its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1889.

[No. 240, A.]

[Published March 13, 1889.]

CHAPTER 79.

AN ACT to legalize the acts of the First Baptist Church and Society of Lincoln, and to constitute said body a legally organized body, and to change the name of said society to the First Baptist Church and Society of Whitehall.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whereas, certain persons did on the 12th day of July, 1866, at the town of Lincoln, in the county of Trempealeau, attempt to organize a religious society to be known as the First Baptist Church and Society of Lincoln, but failed to record the certificate of such organization as required by law; and whereas, said society, under the above name in said town and county, has ever since continued to act as a religious corporation duly organized; therefore, it is hereby declared that all official acts of the officers of the above named society shall be valid and binding in all respects, as if said society had complied with the law relating to the organization of religious societies in every particular.

Legalizing acts of First Baptist church and Society of Lincoln and to change name.

SECTION 2. This act shall be recorded at the expense of the above named society in the office of the register of deeds, in the record book kept by him for recording the certificates of the organization of religious societies, and shall in every instance be taken as complete evidence of the legal

This act to be recorded in register of deeds office; effect; how hereafter known.