CHAPTER 390.

AN ACT to authorize the city of Rice Lake to issue bonds and raise money for the erection of public buildings therein and to convey such buildings to the county of Barron upon the conditions therein expressed, and to legalize the acts, proceedings and ordinances of the common council of said city in relation thereto, and the grant of such buildings to said county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The acts and proceedings of the mayor and common council of the city of Rice Lake in issuing bonds and appropriating money for the erection of public buildings in said city, and all ordinances of the said common council in relation thereto, and especially an ordinance of said city passed May 31st, 1890, and approved by the mayor, June 2nd, 1890, entitled, "An ordinance to authorize the issue of bonds, to aid in the construction of public buildings," are hereby legalized and validated and such ordinance is hereby declared to be a valid ordinance of the common council of said city, and all such acts and proceedings shall have the same force and effect and for all purposes shall be as valid and binding as though they were especially authorized by law enacted prior to the performance of such acts and proceedings, and to the passage and approval of such ordinance.

Acts of common council legalized.

SECTION 2. It shall be lawful, and the mayor and common council of said city are hereby authorized, when, if ever, the county seat of the county of Barron shall be located at said city of Rice Lake therein, to grant and convey any buildings which may have been constructed by said city to the said county of Barron, with or without consideration, as said council has determined, or may determine, to be used for county purposes, and any conveyance heretofore made by said city, conditional or otherwise, to said county or to individuals in trust for said county or for said city, shall be as effectual to grant and convey the same and insure title in the grantee upon the conditions expressed in said grant, as though done after the passage of this act and the same had been duly authorized by law. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this act shall be construed to affect in any manner any litigation now pending in court.

Common council may convey buildings to county of Barron.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 23, 1891.
