CHAPTER 466.

AN ACT to amend chapter 120, of the laws of Wisconsin of 1887, entitled "An act to amend the charter of the city of Appleton."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That subchapter 7, of chapter 441, of the laws of 1885, as amended by chapter 120, laws of 1887, is hereby amended by adding the following new section thereto, viz: Section 10. The common council, in addition to the powers already granted, shall have power to require the owners of real estate to build, re-build, re-lay or repair sidewalks, hand rails, curbings and gutters in front of their property, and when a street or alley shall have been ordered to be paved or macadamized, to require the owners of real estate fronting on the same to lay service gas pipe, water pipe or sewers from their curb lines to any gas or water pipe or sewer in such street or alley, at intervals of not less than twenty feet, and to cut down or remove any noxious trees, or any trees, fences, buildings or other structures, encroaching on any street or sidewalk, in front of their premises, to take down or remove any dilapidated building, ruins, walls or other structure on their premises, endangering travel on the streets or sidewalks; to clear the sidewalks in front of their premises of snow, ice, rubbish or filth; to require them to clean the alleys adjoining their premises to the center thereof. When the common council shall deem it necessary to require any of the things or works mentioned in the foregoing section to be done, it shall make and enter an order requiring the same to be done or performed, briefly describing the real estate in front of which or upon which such work or thing shall be done, and naming a reasonable time after the service of such order, for the performance thereof. The general law requiring the registration of electors shall not apply to the annual municipal or judicial elections hereafter held in said city, and no registry of electors shall be required at any annual or special election held in said city, unless so ordered by the common council.

Council may order building and repairing of sidewalks, gutters, curbings, etc.

General law requiring registration of electors at annual municipal or judicial elections not to apply to city of Appleton.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
